

CANADA...Making a Difference in Afghanistan

Interested in Canada's contribution to development and reconstruction in Afghanistan?

Want to learn about what it's like to be a front-line development worker?

Join us in Alumni Hall, for an information session with a member of CIDA's (Canadian International Development Agency) Afghanistan Task Force.

Our Guest speaker is Diana Youdell, former Head of Aid, Canadian Embassy, currently special advisor to the Director General of the Afghanistan Task Force at Foreign Affairs.

She will share her unique life and work experience in Afghanistan and bring us up to date on the program and progress being made in the country.

Wednesday, February 6, 2008 1:30 - 2:30

Where: Nova Scotia Agricultural College,
Alumni Hall in Cumming Hall.

Cumming Hall is the large brick building with the flags in front of it (62 Cumming Drive).

Presentation with Question and Answer session or discussion to follow.
For further information on this or other International Development Week activities please contact NSAC International, 893-6514 or email melliott@nsac.ca.

