

To: All NSAC Faculty

Maximize your use of the MacRae Library at an interactive information session!

What will I learn at this session?

- Ways to maximize your use of the library's databases and journals (save time!)
- How to order journal articles and books from other universities
- How to get items on Reserve for your class
- Resources for you and your students (writing centre, grad student photocopy cards, group study workstations)
- Learn about library instruction for your classes
- RefWorks (online bibliographic manager)
- Who to contact if you have questions

Space is limited to 15 participants! (A second session will be held if needed.)

Where is the session being held?

The session will take place on Friday, May 8th from 1-2pm in the MacRae Library in the AV corner. Coffee and treats provided!

What do I need to bring to the session?

- Laptop (not required but useful)
- Any questions you may have (you may also email them to Erin before the session)

How do I reserve a place?

Contact Erin MacPherson, Reference Assistant, MacRae Library by May 4th at: Tel: 902.893.3296
Email: emacpherson@nsac.ca

